3. Answer the following questions, including as much specificity as necessary. This will help me in my selection of participants as well as in tailoring the seminar to the needs and intentions of those who are chosen to participate. Write your answers on a separate piece of paper or in a Word document that you can print and include.

- a) Why do you want to be a participant in “How to Make a Difference (and Make $$) Teaching Teachers?”
- b) What work and/or life experiences have you had that relate to this seminar?
- c) What skills, knowledge, talents, and strengths do you bring to this seminar experience?
- d) What do you plan to do with the information that you learn, i.e., what goals do you have related to your learning?
- e) Why do you think the timing is right for you to participate in this seminar (vs. sometime in the future)?
- f) What are your learning intentions for this entire experience (i.e., the teleseminars leading up to the workshop; the reading, thinking, and other preparation before, during, and after the workshop; and the week-long seminar)?
- g) Any other pertinent information you want me to know.

4. Please provide a current curriculum vita or professional resume along with the rest of your application.
